

Dmitry Bartasinsky, Paralympic medalist in Tokyo, received a corporate award from Rosgeo

22.09.2021

Sergey Gorkov, the head of RosGeo, handed over the honorary corporate award "Honored Employee of RosGeo" to Dmitry Bartasinsky, the hydrogeologist of Central PGA, to congratulate his successful performance at the Paralympics in Tokyo.

Sergey Gorkov, the head of RosGeo, handed over the honorary corporate award "Honored Employee of RosGeo" to Dmitry Bartasinsky, the hydrogeologist of Central PGA, to congratulate his successful performance at the Paralympics in Tokyo.

"Congratulations to Dmitry on an outstanding sporting achievement and a well-deserved award! We wish him new victories not only in sports, but also in the profession!" said Sergey Gorkov

Dmitry Bartasinsky won the bronze medal in the swimming competition at the Paralympics in Tokyo, finishing the third in the 100 m breaststroke (SB9 class).

Dmitry has been swimming since 2001 and has already achieved impressive results - he is a multiple world champion, European champion, European record holder (400 m freestyle), Honored Master of Sports of Russia in swimming among athletes with musculoskeletal disorders.

Dmitry plans to study in post-graduate school and, possibly, participate in the World Swimming Championships next year.